MoMoWo TRAVELLING EXHIBITION

European Project

MoMoWo - Women's creativity since the Modern Movement

The Travelling Exhibition is one of the main activities of this project co-supported by Creative Europe Programme, which celebrates the contributes of women in architecture, civil engineering, urban planning, lanscape architecture, product and interior design. Starting in Oviedo (Spain), the exhibition will be showcased at the cities of the project partners. Between September 15 and OOctober 31, 2016, it will be in presented in Lisbon, in October in Grenoble, and already in 2017, it will be in Amesterdam in March, Ljubljana in April and finally, from June, in Turin, where Politecnico di Torino (Turin Polytechnic School), the project leader, is based. The exhibition is divided in two spaces: one outdoor and one indoor.

The outdoor section, coordinated by IADE-U MoMoWo team and sponsored by Lisbon's City Council, will be at Vitorino Damásio Square. I this section, it will be showcased MoMoWo's International Photography Competition outcomes, displaying the finalists and winners' photographic reportages, whose challenge consisted on portraying female professionals of the mentioned fields in the privacy of their homes, focusing on the connection between their domestic daily life and their professional occupation.

The interior section is the result of a partnership between FPC - Fundação Portuguesa de Comunicações (Portuguese Foundation of Communications) and IADE-U. At FPC the Chronomomowo is exhibited, where one may find 100 works done by women ordered according to a timeline, and the interactive digital exhibition MoMoWo | 100 projects in 100 years | European Women in Architecture and Design, displaying works created by female architects and designers, on a tribute which will allow the public to understand the relevance of their contribute to the given professional fields. Besides this collection, the indoor exhibition will also include some surprises, like the eighteen Cultural-Touristic

Itineraries, traced and gathered by the international team of MoMoWo - Women's creativity since the Modern Movement, in order to promote 125 works of women architects and designers present on cities of the partners' countries, namely on the city of Lisbon.
